

Using harmonic
tuning forks to balance and heal
the human
energetic body
systems.

There is much written and understood of our ancient civilisations belief in sound as the creator of the whole universe. It has been said that most of the worlds religious texts agree that it was either "sound" or the "word" (or both) that created our universe and all that is in it.

Each organism has its own vibratory rate. Every object in the universe has its own unique resonant frequency.
